(1) The National Bank may reject the application for license issuance for conducting the activity as a payment institution if:

a) it considers that the applicant does not meet the conditions defined in Article 15;

b) the applicant did not submit the required documents and information or the submitted documents and information contain incomplete, conflicting, inaccurate or insufficient information to determine whether the conditions defined in Article 15 are met.

(2) In case the application for license issuance has been rejected, the applicant may submit a new application after the elimination of circumstances that served as ground for rejecting the previous application.

Article 16¹. Control of payment institutions' holdings

(1) The person or persons acting in concert shall not have the right, without prior permission from the National Bank, to acquire, directly or indirectly, a holding in a payment institution or to increase, directly or indirectly, the holding, fact which would have the effect of qualifying it as a qualified holding or it reaches or exceeds the level of 20%, 30% or 50% of the voting rights or of the share capital, or the payment institution will become a dependent undertaking.

(2) Where, as a result of occurrences of circumstances beyond the will of the person, his holding becomes qualified or reaches or exceeds the levels specified in paragraph (1), the acquirer shall not be entitled to exercise the right to vote according to the shares/holdings held without the prior permission of the National Bank. In order to obtain permission, the acquirer shall submit an application during one month as of the occurrence of the basis for it.

(3) Until the permission of the National Bank is obtained, the holdings referred to in paragraph (2) shall not be taken into account in determining the quorum of the shareholders' / associates' meeting and in decision-making of the meeting.

(4) In order to obtain the permission, the person or persons acting in concert shall forward an application, by which shall communicate the decision to acquire holdings according to paragraph (1) or about the occurrence of basis according to paragraph (2), and shall attach the documents established by the National Bank.

(5) The National Bank shall evaluate the decision to acquire the holdings on the basis of the documents and information submitted by the applicant according to the normative acts of the National Bank.

(6) The National Bank shall examine the application for issuing the permission referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) within 3 months from the date of receipt of the application and of all necessary documents and information. If necessary for the assessment provided under paragraph (5), the National Bank may request the submission of additional documents and / or information. The applicant shall submit the additional information or documents solicited by the National Bank within maximum 20 working days from the date of receipt of application. In case the applicant fails to submit the requested information or documents within the time limit specified in this item, the National Bank shall refuse to grant the permission. For the period between the date of solicitation for information and the date of receipt of information, the timing for examination of the application is suspended. Any other solicitation on behalf of the National Bank to fill in or clarify the information received shall not have the effect of suspending the assessment period. The National Bank of Moldova may decide to extend the stipulated period of suspension up to 30 working days, if the applicant is located or regulated in another State or is a person who is not subject of supervision on behalf of the National Bank of Moldova.

(7) The National Bank shall decide on the application for permission referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) on the basis of the potential influence exerted by the applicant on the payment institution, taking into account the need to ensure the stable and prudent management of the institution concerned and if it ascertained that the applicant's financial situation is safe and appropriate. In assessing the fulfillment of these criteria, there shall be taken into account the reputation of the applicant, the reputation and experience of any person who will manage the activity of the institution as a result of the acquisition of holdings, the financial situation of the applicant taking into account the specific nature of the activity being pursued or envisaged by the company, lack of impediments for effective performance of the National Bank's oversight attribution of the institution's activity, lack of reasonable basis for considering that money laundering and terrorist financing operations are being or will be carried out in connection with the requested acquisition or that the risk of such operations will increase.

(8) In order to make a decision regarding the application for issuing the permission, the National Bank can consult other competent public authorities in the country and abroad, period during which the term of application's examination for granting permission stipulated in paragraph (6) shall be suspended.

(9) The National Bank shall reject the application for issuing permission if there are reasonable basis for doing so, on the basis of the conditions and criteria set out in paragraph (7) or if the information and documents submitted by the applicant are incomplete and/or contain erroneous data. The reasons for rejecting the application shall be communicated to the applicant.

(10) The National Bank can set a time limit for the acquisition of holdings, at the expiration of which the issued permission becomes invalid.

(11) If the permission to acquire qualified holdings has not been requested within the time limit or if necessary information has not been submitted or the application has been rejected, the National Bank has the right to order suspension of exercising the voting rights related to shares / holdings held without permission before obtaining the prior permission from the National Bank and / or to order their alienation during 6 months' period.

(12) The National Bank of Moldova may extend the six-month period provided for in paragraph (11) for periods of not more than 6 months, no more than 3 consecutive times, in case the extension is necessary for non-admission of endangering the financial stability or in case there is a public interest in ordering the prolongation, or when a potential acquirer of the shares exposed for sale has been identified without a prior assessment by the National Bank of Moldova, whose suitability and adequacy does not arise reasonable suspicions at the moment of approval of the extension decision.

(13) In case of suspension of exercising the voting right of the shareholder/associate according to paragraph (11), the shares/holdings the voting right of which is suspended shall not be taken into account in determining the quorum of the shareholders'/associates' meeting and in taking decisions by the meeting. In such a case, if there is a danger for the safe and stable administration of the payment institution, the National Bank has the right to limit the activity of the institution, and to prohibit (restrict) the development of certain activities or to prohibit the payment of dividends or another distribution of capital.

[Art.161 introduced by the Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]

(4) The National Bank shall examine the information specified in paragraphs (3) and (3¹) and, within 30 days after their receipt, shall inform the payment institution of the decision to include the branch / paying agent in the register.

(5) The National Bank shall list the branch/ agent in the register of payment institutions, if the information provided in paragraph (3) and paragraph (3¹) is presented and if it is ascertained that the information is up to date, accurate and complete.

(5¹) The payment institution is obliged to notify the National Bank of any modification of the data in the documents submitted for the registration of the branch / paying agent within 10 working days from the date of occurrence of modifications and to submit the documents confirming the modifications within 30 days after the modifications occurred.

(5²) The payment institution shall ensure that the branches / paying agents acting on its behalf inform the payment services users about this fact.

(6) In case the National Bank considers that the information it has been provided is incomplete, contradictory or inaccurate, it may take further steps to verify the information before registering the branch / paying agent in the register. Upon solicitation by the National Bank of additional information on behalf of the payment institution, it shall submit the solicited information within maximum 30 days from the date of solicitation's communication, during which the term of examination provided in paragraph (4) shall be suspended.

(7) If, after taking additional measures to verify the information, the National Bank is not assured that the information it has been provided in accordance with paragraphs (3) and (3¹) is up to date, accurate and complete, it shall refuse to register the branch / payment agent in the register and shall inform the payment company about that, and the documents and information specified in paragraphs (3) and (3¹) shall be returned.

(8) The National Bank shall withdraw the registration of the branch or agent, if it no longer meets the conditions of this Law and normative acts issued for its execution, and when it finds that the registration was made based on false information or documents. The National Bank shall inform that payment institution of withdrawal of its registration, which is required to stop the activity of that branch or the payment service activity of the respective agent.

(9) The National Bank shall remove from the register the branch/payment agent based on the request submitted by the payment institution, no later than 3 days after the date of termination of the activity through the branch/ payment agent.

[Art.27 amended by the Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]

Article 28. Outsourcing

(1) Where a payment institution intends to outsource operational functions of payment services to a legal person (provider), it shall inform the National Bank at least one month until the date when it plans to sign the contract on outsourcing.

(2) The outsourcing of important operational functions, including the information system management function, shall not be undertaken in such way as to impair the quality of the payment institution's internal control and to prevent the National Bank from verifying and monitoring of the payment institution's fulfillment of all obligations laid down in this Law as well as shall not hinder exercising duties of authorized public control authorities.

(3) An operational function shall be regarded as important if a difficulty or failure in its performance would materially impair the continuing compliance of the payment institution with the requirements of its license or its other obligations under this Law or would materially affect its financial performance, the soundness or the continuity of its payment services.

(4) Outsourcing of important operational functions may be undertaken only when the payment institution complies with the following minimum conditions:

a) the outsourcing shall not result in the delegation to the provider of the institution's senior management responsibility;

b) the relationship and obligations of the payment institution towards its payment service users under this Law shall not be affected;

c) the conditions with which the payment institution is to comply in order to be licensed and remain so in accordance with this Law shall not be affected;

d) none of the conditions subject to which the payment institution's license was granted shall be removed or modified.

(5) The important operational functions that may be outsourced by the payment institution shall be laid down in the normative acts of the National Bank.

(6) Payment institution shall attach to the notification mentioned in paragraph (1) the documents and information which confirm the compliance with the provisions of paragraph (4).

(7) The payment institution shall ensure that its branches or agents acting on its behalf inform the payment service users that it is going to outsource the operational functions relating to the provided payment service.

(8) The payment institution shall take reasonable measures to ensure compliance with this Law, the legislative and normative acts in force by the providers of outsourced operational functions.

(9) The payment institution shall notify the National Bank within 10 working days of any modification in its outsourced activities.

[Art.28 completed by the Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]

Article 29. Accounting

(1) The payment institution shall organize and carry out the accounting in accordance with the Law on accounting and financial reporting no. 287 of December 15, 2017

(2) For supervisory purposes, the payment institution shall provide the National Bank with separate accounting information, as well as other required information on:

a) provision of payment services specified in Article 4 paragraph (1) excluding item 4);

b) provision of services specified in Article 25 paragraph (1) letter a) and b);

c) other activities carried out by the payment institution.

(3) The accounting information submitted in accordance with the paragraph (2) shall be accompanied, in order to confirm the accuracy of information, by an auditor's report prepared according the applicable legislative and normative acts by the internal auditor, an audit firm or by an independent auditor, which audits the payment institution.

(4) The information stipulated in paragraph (2) shall be presented in terms, form, manner and content established by the National Bank.

[Art.29 paragraph (1) amended by the Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 01.01.2019]

[Art.29 paragraph (2) amended by the Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]

Article 30. Audit

(1) The annual and annual consolidated financial reports of the payment institutions are subject to audit by the auditing committee / auditor (hereinafter internal auditor), audit firm or independent auditor.

(2) The internal auditor, audit firm or independent auditor which performs the audit of a payment institution informs the National Bank as soon as he / it is aware of any fact or decision concerning payment institution that:

a) constitutes a material breach of the law, other normative acts or other acts issued for its application, which regulates the activity of providing payment services;

b) may lead to a situation where payment institution will not be able to perform its pecuniary obligations or may affect the payment institution's ability to continue operating;

c) can lead to an impossibility of the internal auditor, audit firm or independent auditor to express an opinion on the financial statements or may conduct to express by them of an opinion with limitations;

d) concerns the incorrect or incomplete data submitted periodically to the National Bank.

(3) At the request of the National Bank, internal auditor, audit firm or independent auditor which performs the audit of payment institution is required to provide information on audit activity of performed payment service activity.

(4) Fulfillment with good faith by the internal auditor, audit firm or independent auditor which performs the audit of payment institution, of the obligation to inform the National Bank under paragraph (2) and (3) does not constitute breach of the obligation of professional secrecy, incumbent by law or contractual terms, and cannot attract liability of any kind of it.

Article 31. Payment institution's liability

- (1) The payment institution is required to ensure that the branches, agents and outsourced operational service providers comply with the requirements of legislative and normative acts.
- (2) Failure of the agent and the outsourced operational service provider to comply with the requirements of this Law may serve as a ground for the payment institution to terminate the contracts signed with them.
- (3) That payment institution remains liable for any acts (non-acts) relating to payment service provision, its employees, or any branch, agent or outsourced operational service provider.
- (4) The payment institution's branches and agents shall inform the payment service users of the fact that they are acting on behalf of the payment institution.
- (5) When the agent or branch is removed from the register, the documents and funds relating to the non-executed obligations and unfinished accounts on provision of payment services or on activities carried out to provide such services shall be submitted/sent to the payment institution.

Article 32. Record-keeping

The payment institution keeps all the records, documents and other information relating to the provided payment services and the activity carried out for at least 5 years.

Article 32¹. Management of operational and security risks

- (1) Payment services providers shall establish a framework with appropriate mitigation measures and control mechanisms to manage the operational and security risks, relating to the payment services they provide. As part of that framework, payment service providers shall establish and maintain effective incident management procedures, including for the detection and classification of major operational and security incidents.
- (2) Payment services providers shall provide to the National Bank on an annual basis, or at shorter intervals as determined by the National Bank an updated and comprehensive assessment of the operational and security risks relating to the payment services they provide and on the adequacy of the mitigation measures and control mechanisms implemented in response to those risks.
- (3) The mandatory minimum requirements for the security and continuity of the activity to be applied by payment services providers shall be laid down in the National Bank's normative acts.
[Art.32¹ introduced by the Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]

Article 32². Reporting of incidents

- (1) In the event of an incident that caused malfunctions in the core business or affected the availability, security or integrity of the information system, the payment institutions, postal service providers and electronic money institutions shall notify the incident, no later than the next working day to the National Bank.
- (2) In the event that an incident has or may have an impact on the payment services users' financial interests of the payment services provider, he shall without undue delay inform the relevant users about the incident and about all available measures that they may take in order to mitigate its negative effects.
- (3) The periodicity, the criteria for evaluating the incident and the details of the reports on the incident that follow to be communicated shall be established in the normative acts of the National Bank.
[Art.32² introduced by the Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]

Chapter IV TRANSPARENCY OF CONDITIONS AND INFORMATION REQUIREMENTS FOR PAYMENT SERVICES

Section 1 General provisions

Article 33. Scope

- (1) The provisions of this Chapter shall apply to single payment transactions, framework contracts and payment transactions covered by them, where the payment service user is a consumer.
- (2) The parties to the payment transaction may agree to apply in whole or in part, the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 34. General information

Without prejudice to other provisions of this Law, the payment service providers referred to in Article 5 paragraph (1) letters a) to d) are obliged:

- 1) to ensure that at least the following general information is provided in every place of payment services provision in a visible spot:
 - a) address of the place (location) of payment service provision;
 - b) copy of the license of the payment services provider and, where applicable, authorized copy of the license of the payment service provider for the branch;

c) contact telephone numbers and, if available, official website, e-mail address of the payment service provider;

2) if they have an official website, to ensure the publication of the information referred to in item 1) letter b) and c) as well as the information on the places (locations) of service provision, branch offices, name and offices of payment agents, if exists any.

Article 35. Charges for providing information

(1) The payment service provider shall not charge any fee or another payment from the payment service user (hereinafter the charge) for providing information under this Chapter.

(2) The payment service provider and the payment service user may agree on charges for additional or more frequent information than the one provided in this Chapter, or transmission by means of communication other than those specified in the framework contract, provided at the payment service user's request.

(3) Where the payment service provider may impose charges for information in accordance with paragraph (2), they shall be appropriate to the payment service provider's actual costs.

(4) Where a currency exchange service is provided until a payment transaction is initiated, and that money exchange service is to be provided at the sales point or by the payee, the party which provides the money exchange service, shall inform the payment service user of all charges and exchange rate to be applied for the conversion of the payment transaction.

(5) Where a payee offers a discount for using a specific payment instrument and/or payment service, the payee shall inform the payer of it before initiating the payment transaction.

(6) Where a payment service provider or a third party is requesting a charge for using a specific payment instrument and/or payment service, he shall inform the payment service user of this until initiating the payment transaction.

Article 36. Burden of proof on information requirements

The burden of proof shall lie with the payment service provider to prove that it has complied with the information requirements laid down in this Chapter.

Article 37. Derogation from information requirements for low-value payment instruments and payment instruments related to electronic money

(1) In the case of payment instruments which, according to the framework contract, solely concern individual payment transactions which have a spending limit (total use of funds) of MDL 2 500 or their equivalent in foreign currency at the official rate of Moldovan Leu on the day of transaction, or deposit (store) funds which at no time exceed MDL 2 500 or their equivalent in foreign currency at the official rate of Moldovan Leu on the day of transaction:

1) by way of derogation from Articles 42 and 46, the payment service provider shall provide the payer only information on the main characteristics of the payment service, including the way in which the payment instrument can be used, liability, charges levied and other important information needed to take an informed decision as well as an indication of where any other information and conditions specified in Article 42 paragraph (1) are made available in an easily accessible manner;

2) it may be agreed that, by way of derogation from Article 44, the payment service provider not to be required to propose changes in the conditions of the framework contract on paper or on another durable medium;

3) it may be agreed that, by way of derogation from Articles 47 and 48, after the execution of a payment transaction:

a) the payment service provider shall provide or make available only a reference enabling the payment service user to identify the payment transaction, the amount of the payment transaction, any charges and/or, in the case of several payment transactions of the same kind made to the same payee, information on the total amount and charges for those payment transactions;

b) the payment service provider is not required to provide or make available information referred to in letter a), if the payment instrument is used anonymously or if the payment service provider is not otherwise technically in a position to provide it. In this case, the payment service provider shall provide the payer with a possibility to verify the amount of funds stored.

Section 2

Single payment transactions

Article 38. Prior general information

(1) Before a payment service user becomes a party to a contract or an offer of single payment transaction, the payment service provider shall provide, in an easily accessible manner, the following information to the payment service user:

(a) information or unique identifier that has to be provided by the payment service user in order for a payment order to be properly executed;

(b) the maximum execution time for the payment service to be provided;

(c) all charges payable by the payment service user to his payment service provider and, where applicable, the breakdown of the amounts of any charges by type and amount;

(d) where applicable, the actual or reference exchange rate to be applied to the payment transaction.

(2) The information and conditions relating to payment services shall be communicated to the payment service user in a clear and accessible manner, in the state language or in any other language agreed between the parties.

(3) The payment service provider shall provide, at the payment service user's request, the information stipulated in paragraph (1) on paper or on another durable medium or in the manner agreed by the parties (e-mail, SMS, etc.).

(4) If the single payment service contract has been concluded at the request of the payment service user using a means of distance communication that does not permit the payment service provider to comply with paragraphs (1) and (2), the payment service provider shall fulfill his obligations under that paragraphs immediately after the execution of the payment transaction.

(5) The obligations specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) may also be fulfilled by submitting a copy of the draft single payment service contract or the draft payment order including the information and conditions specified in paragraph (1).

(6) Where a payment order for a single payment transaction is transmitted through a payment instrument and/or under a payment service governed by a framework contract, the payment service provider is not required to provide or make available the information that has already been transmitted to the payment service user under a framework contract signed with another payment service provider or which is to be transmitted under that framework contract.

(7) Where appropriate, any other relevant information and conditions provided in Article 42 paragraph (1) and (2) shall be made available to the payment service user in an easily accessible manner.

Article 39. Information for the payer after the receipt of the payment order

(1) Immediately after the receipt of the payment order, the payer's payment service provider shall provide or make available to the payer the following information:

a) the reference enabling the payer to identify the payment transaction and, where appropriate, information relating to the payee;

b) the amount of the payment transaction in the currency used in the payment order;

c) the amount of any charges for the payment transaction payable by the payer and a breakdown of the amount of such charges by type and amount;

d) where applicable, the exchange rate used in the payment transaction by the payer's payment service provider or a reference thereto, when different from the rate provided in accordance with Article 38 paragraph (1) letter (d), and the amount of the payment transaction after that currency conversion;

e) the date of receipt of the payment order.

(2) The information shall be provided in accordance with the requirements stipulated in Article 38 paragraph (2) and (3).

Article 40. Information for the payee after the execution of the payment transaction

(1) Immediately after the execution of the payment transaction, the payee's payment service provider shall provide or make available to the payee the following information:

a) the reference enabling the payee to identify the payment transaction and, where appropriate, the payer and any information transferred with the payment transaction;

b) the amount of the payment transaction in the currency in which the funds are at the payee's disposal;

c) the amount of any charges for the payment transaction payable by the payee and a breakdown of the amount of such charges by type and amount;

d) where applicable, the exchange rate used in the payment transaction by the payee's payment service provider, and the total amount of the payment transaction before the currency conversion;

e) the credit value date.

(2) The information shall be provided in accordance with the requirements stipulated in Article 38 paragraph (2) and (3).

Section 3

Framework contract

Article 41. Scope

(1) This Section shall apply to payment operations that are under the scope of a framework contract.

(2) A framework contract is a contract on payment services which covers at least the information provided in Article 42 and is mandatory (necessary) at least where there is a payment account or a payment instrument and/or a payment service specific to individual and successive payment transactions (any payment transactions other than the single payment transactions).

Article 42. Pre-contract information

(1) Before a payment service user is bound by any framework contract, the payment service provider shall provide the payment service user, with sufficient time in advance, the following information on paper or on another durable medium, in easily understandable words and in a clear form, in a state language or in other language agreed between the parties:

1) On the payment service provider:

- a) the name of the payment service provider, the address of the head office and, where applicable, the address of the agent or branch, and any other address, including electronic mail address, relevant for communication with the payment service provider;
- b) the payment provider's supervisory authorities, the public register where the payment service provider is listed and the registration number or other equivalent means of identification in that register;

2) On use of the payment service:

- a) a description of the main characteristics of the payment service to be provided;
- b) a specification of the information or a unique identifier that has to be provided by the payment service user in order for a payment order to be properly executed;
- c) the form of and procedure for giving consent to execute a payment transaction and withdrawal of such consent in accordance with Articles 52 and 62;
- d) a reference to the point in time of receipt of a payment order as defined in Article 60 and the cut-off time, if any, established by the payment service provider;
- e) the maximum execution time for the payment service to be provided;
- f) whether there is a possibility to agree on spending limits for the use of the payment instrument in accordance with Article 53 paragraph (1);

3) On charges, interest and exchange rates:

- a) all charges payable by the payment service user to the payment service provider and the breakdown of their amounts by type and amount;
- b) where applicable, the interest and exchange rates to be applied or, if reference interest and exchange rates are to be used, the method of calculating the actual interest, and the relevant date and index or base for determining such relevant reference interest or exchange rate;
- c) if parties agree, the immediate application of changes in reference interest or exchange rate and information requirements related to the changes in accordance with Article 44 paragraphs (4) to (6);

4) On communication:

- a) where applicable, the means of communication, including the technical requirements for the payment service user's equipment, agreed between the parties for the transmission of information under this Law;
- b) the manner in and frequency with which information under this Law is to be provided or made available;
- c) the language or languages in which the framework contract will be concluded and communication during this contractual relationship undertaken;
- d) the payment service user's right to receive, on request, during the contractual terms of the framework contract and information and conditions in accordance with this paragraph on paper or on another durable medium;

5) On safeguards, safety and corrective measures:

- a) where a payment instrument is applicable, a description of steps to be undertaken by the payment service user to safeguard a payment instrument and the ways of notifying the payment service provider in case of loss, theft or misappropriation of his payment instrument or any other unauthorized use of it under Article 54 paragraph (1) letter b);
- b) if agreed, the conditions under which the payment service provider reserves the right to block a payment instrument in accordance with Article 53;
- c) the liability of the payer for unauthorized payment in accordance with Article 58, including information on the relevant amount;
- d) how and within what period of time the payment service user is to notify the payment service provider of any unauthorized or defectively (incorrectly) executed payment transaction as well as the payment service provider's liability for unauthorized payment transactions in accordance with Article 56;
- e) the liability of the payment service provider for the non-execution or defective execution of payment transactions in accordance with Article 70;
- f) the conditions for refund in accordance with Article 59;

6) On changes and termination of framework contract:

- a) if the parties agree, information that the payment service user will be deemed to have accepted changes in the contractual conditions in accordance with Article 44, unless he notifies the payment service provider that he does not accept them before the date of their proposed date of entry into force;
- b) the duration of the contract;

c) the right of the payment service user to terminate the framework contract;

7) On the disputes redress:

- a) any contractual clause on the law applicable to the framework contract and/or the competent courts;
- b) the redress procedures of complaints and disputes available to the payment service user under Chapter IX.

(2) The obligations under paragraph (1) may be also fulfilled by submitting a copy of the draft framework contract including the information and conditions specified in paragraph (1).

(3) If the framework contract has been concluded at the request of the payment service user using a means of distance communication that does not enable the payment service provider to comply with paragraph (1), the payment service provider shall fulfill his obligations under that paragraph immediately after the conclusion of the framework contract.

Article 43. Accessibility of information and framework contract conditions

At any time during the contractual relationship the payment service user is entitled to receive, on request, the contractual terms of the framework contract as well as the information and conditions specified in Article 42 paragraph (1) on paper or on another durable medium.

Article 44. Changes in conditions of the framework contract

(1) Any changes in the framework contract as well as changes in the information and conditions specified in Article 42 paragraph (1), shall be proposed by the payment service provider on paper or on another durable medium or in the manner agreed by the parties (e-mail, sms, etc.) as provided for in Article 38 paragraph (2) and no later than 2 months before the proposed date of their application.

(2) Where applicable in accordance with of Article 42 paragraph (1) item (6) letter a), the payment service provider shall inform the payment service user that he is to be deemed to have accepted these changes if he does not notify the payment service provider that he does not accept them before the proposed date of their entry into force.

(3) In the case referred to in paragraph (2), the payment service provider shall also specify that the payment service user has the right to terminate the framework contract immediately and without charge before the date of entry into force of the proposed changes.

(4) Changes in the interest or exchange rates may be applied immediately and without notice, provided that such a right is agreed upon in the framework contract and that the changes are based on the reference interest or exchange rates agreed in accordance with Article 42 paragraph (1) item 3) letter b) and c).

(5) The payment service user shall be informed of any change in the interest rate at the earliest opportunity (but no later than within 3 business days) on paper or on another durable medium, unless the parties have agreed a specific frequency or manner (e-mail, SMS, etc.) in which the information is to be provided or made available.

(6) If changes in interest or exchange rates are more favorable to the payment service users, they may be applied without notice.

(7) Changes in the interest or exchange rate used in payment transactions shall be implemented and calculated in a neutral manner that does not discriminate against payment service users.

Article 45. Termination of a framework contract

(1) The payment service user may terminate the framework contract at any time, unless the parties have agreed a period of notice. Such a period may not exceed one month.

(2) Unilateral termination of a framework contract concluded for a fixed period exceeding 12 months or for an indefinite period shall be free of penalties or other payments for the payment service user after the expiry of 12 months of the date of concluding the framework contract.

(3) Except for the case as provided in paragraph (2), penalties or other payments for the unilateral termination by the payment service user shall be appropriate and in line with actual costs of the payment service provider.

(4) If agreed in the framework contract, the payment service provider may unilaterally terminate a framework contract concluded for an indefinite period by sending a notice on paper or on another durable medium or in the manner agreed by the parties (e-mail, SMS, etc.) at least 2 months in advance.

(5) Charges for payment services levied on a regular basis shall be payable by the payment service user only proportionally with the period up to the termination of the contract. If such charges are paid in advance, they shall be reimbursed proportionally.

(6) The provisions of paragraphs (1) to (5) shall not apply under the termination of a framework contract for non-fulfillment of the obligations by any of the parties.

Article 46. Information provided before the execution of individual payment transactions

Before the execution of an individual payment transaction under a framework contract initiated by the payer, a payment service provider shall, at the payment service user's request for this specific payment transaction, provide explicit information on the maximum execution time and the charges payable by the payer and, where applicable, a breakdown of the amounts of any charges by type and amount.

Article 47. Information for the payer on individual payment transactions

(1) After the amount of an individual payment transaction is debited from the payer's account or, where the payer does not use a payment account, after the receipt of the payment order, the payer's payment service provider shall provide immediately the payer on paper or on another durable medium or in the other manner agreed by the parties (e-mail, SMS, etc.), with the following information:

a) the information enabling the payer to identify each payment transaction and, where appropriate, information relating to the payee;

b) the amount of the payment transaction in the currency in which the payer's payment account is debited or in the currency used for the payment order;

c) the amount of charges for the payment transaction and a breakdown thereof by type and amount or the interest payable by the payer;

d) where applicable, the exchange rate used in the payment transaction by the payer's payment service provider, and the total amount of the payment transaction after that currency conversion;

e) the debit value date or the date of receipt of the payment order.

(2) The payer's payment service provider shall provide the payer, at least once a month, on paper or in other manner agreed by the parties (e-mail, SMS, etc.), free of charge, with the information relating to all registered transactions (account statement).

Article 48. Information for the payee on individual payment transactions

(1) After the execution of an individual payment transaction, the payee's payment service provider shall provide the payee without undue delay (not later than the business day when the payment transaction has been executed) on paper or on another durable medium or in other manner agreed by the parties (e-mail, SMS, etc.), with the following information:

- a) the information enabling the payee to identify the payment transaction and, where appropriate, the payer, and any information transferred with the payment transaction;
- b) the amount of the payment transaction in the currency in which the payee's payment account is credited;
- c) the amount of any charges for the payment transaction, a breakdown thereof by type and amount, or the interest payable by the payee;
- d) where applicable, the exchange rate used in the payment transaction by the payee's payment service provider, and the total amount of the payment transaction before that currency conversion;
- e) the credit value date.

(2) The payee's payment service provider shall provide the payee, at least once a month, on paper or in other manner agreed by the parties (e-mail, SMS, etc.), free of charge, with the information relating to all registered transactions (account statement).

Chapter V

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS IN RELATION TO THE PROVISION AND USE OF PAYMENT SERVICES

Section 1

General provisions

Article 49. Scope

(1) This Chapter shall govern the rights and obligations of the parties where the single payment transactions, framework contracts and payment transactions covered by them, where the payment service user is not a consumer.

(2) Where the payment service user is not a consumer, the parties may agree that Article 50 paragraph (1) and (2), Article 52 paragraph (3) and Articles 57 to 59, 62, 70 shall not apply in whole or in part, as well the parties may agree on a time period different from that laid down in Article 56 paragraph (1).

(3) The National Bank may establish through normative acts requirements for performance of payment transactions, the use of certain payment instruments and payment services.

Article 50. Charges

(1) The payment service provider shall not charge the payment service user for fulfillment of his information obligations or corrective and preventive measures under this Chapter, unless otherwise specified in this Chapter.

(2) The charges that may be applied under Article 61 paragraph (4), Article 62 paragraph (6) and Article 69 paragraph (3) shall be agreed between the payment service user and the payment service provider and should be limited to covering the payment service provider's actual costs.

(3) Where a payment transaction does not involve any currency conversion, the payee shall pay the charges levied by his payment service provider, and the payer shall pay the charges levied by his payment service provider.

(4) The payment service provider shall not prevent the payee from offering the payer a reduction for the use of a payment instrument or a payment service. The payee is not entitled to request charges from the payer for the use of a payment instrument or a payment service.

(5) The payment service provider shall not charge the payment service user who is a consumer where the contract signed with the provider (supplier) of public utilities (residential, communal, non-communal and other public utilities stipulated by the Government's normative acts) provides for the payment of remuneration to the payment service provider for services of receiving the funds from the consumer and the execution of payment transactions in favor of the provider of those services.

(6) The conditions for determining the amount of interchange fees and of additional fees applied depending on the brand and category of those payment cards for payment transactions made with a payment card or by a similar device by payment services providers are determined by the National Bank's normative acts.

(7) The fees charged by the payment services providers for the payment transactions involving utilization of the automated interbank payment system shall not exceed the level of fees set out in the National Bank's normative acts.

[Art.50 amended by Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]

Article 51. Derogation for low-value payment instruments and payment instruments related to electronic money

(1) In the case of payment instruments which, according to the framework contract, solely concern individual payment transactions which have a spending limit (total use of funds) of MDL 2 500 or their equivalent in foreign currency at the official rate of Moldovan Leu on the day of transaction, or deposit (store) funds which at no time exceed MDL 2 500 or their equivalent in foreign currency at the official rate of Moldovan Leu on the day of transaction, the payment service providers may agree with their payment service users that:

- a) Article 54 paragraph (1) letter (b) and Article 55 paragraph (1) letter (c) to (e) as well as Article 58 paragraph (3) and (4) do not apply, if the payment instrument does not allow its blocking or prevention of its further use;
- b) Article 56 paragraphs (2) and (3), Article 57, Article 58 paragraphs (1) and (2) do not apply, if the payment instrument is used anonymously or the payment service provider is not in a position for other reasons which are intrinsic to the payment instrument to prove that a payment transaction was authorized;
- c) by way of derogation from Article 61 paragraphs (2) to (4), the payment service provider is not required to notify the payment service user of the refusal of a payment order, if the non-execution of the payment is apparent from specific context;
- d) by way of derogation from Article 62, the payer may not revoke the payment order after transmitting the payment order or giving his consent to the payee to execute the payment transaction;
- e) by way of derogation from Articles 64 and 65, other execution periods apply.

(2) Article 56 paragraphs (2) and (3) and Article 58 shall apply also to electronic money, except where the payer's payment service provider does not have the ability to freeze the payment account or block the payment instrument.

Section 2

Authorization of payment transactions

Article 52. Consent and withdrawal of consent

(1) A payment transaction is considered to be authorized only if the payer has given consent prior to or after the execution of the payment transaction.

(2) Consent to execute a payment transaction or a series of payment transactions shall be given in the form agreed between the payer and his payment service provider. In the absence of such consent, a payment transaction shall be considered to be unauthorized.

(3) Consent may be withdrawn by the payer at any time, but no later than the point in time of irrevocability under Article 62.

(4) Consent to execute several (a series of) payment transactions may be withdrawn with the effect that any future payment transaction is to be considered as unauthorized.

(5) The procedure for giving consent shall be agreed between the payer and his payment service provider.

Article 53. Limits of the use of the payment instrument

(1) Where a payment instrument is used for the purposes of giving consent, the payer and his payment service provider may agree on spending limits for payment transactions executed through that payment instrument.

(2) If the framework contract provides so, the payment service provider may reserve the right to block the payment instrument for objectively justified reasons related to:

- a) the security of the payment instrument;
- b) the suspicion of its unauthorized or fraudulent use;
- c) a significantly increased risk that the payer may be unable to fulfill his liability to pay, in the case of a payment instrument with a credit line.

(3) In cases stipulated in paragraph (2), where possible, before the payment instrument is blocked and at the latest immediately thereafter, the payment service provider shall inform the payer, in an agreed manner, of the blocking of the payment instrument and the reasons for it, unless giving such information would compromise objectively justified security reasons or is prohibited by other normative acts.

(4) The payment service provider shall unblock the payment instrument or replace it with a new payment instrument once the reasons for blocking no longer exist.

Article 54. Obligations of the payment service user in relation to payment instruments

(1) The payment service user who is entitled to use a payment instrument shall have the following obligations:

- a) to use the payment instrument in accordance with the terms governing its issue and use;
- b) to notify its payment service provider or the entity specified by the latter without undue delay on becoming aware of loss, theft or misappropriation of the payment instrument or any other unauthorized use of it.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) letter a), the payment service user shall take all reasonable steps to keep the personalized security features safe, as soon as he receives a payment instrument.

Article 55. Obligations of the payment service provider in relation to payment instruments

(1) The payment service provider that issues a payment instrument shall have the following obligations:

- a) to make sure that the personalized security features of the payment instrument are not accessible to parties other than the payment service user entitled to use the payment instrument, without prejudice to the

- obligations on the payment service user as provided in Article 54;
- b) to refrain from sending an unsolicited payment instrument, except where a payment instrument already given to the payment service user is to be replaced;
 - c) to ensure that appropriate means are available at all times to enable the payment service user to make a notification pursuant to Article 54 paragraph (1) letter b) or request unblocking pursuant to Article 53 paragraph (4);
 - d) on request, the payment service provider shall provide the payment service user with the means to prove, for 18 months after notification, the payment service user that he made such notification in accordance with the Article 54 paragraph (1) letter b);
 - e) to prevent all use of the payment instrument once notification pursuant to Article 54 paragraph (1) letter b) has been made.
- (2) The payment service provider shall bear the risk of sending a payment instrument to the payer or of sending any personalized security features of it.

Article 56. Notification of the unauthorized payment transactions and the payment service provider's liability for unauthorized payment transactions

- (1) The payment service user may obtain rectification of a payment transaction from the payment service provider only if he notifies his payment service provider without undue delay on becoming aware of any unauthorized or incorrectly executed payment transactions giving rise to a claim, including that under Article 70, and no later than 13 months after the debit date of his account, unless, where applicable, the payment service provider has failed to provide or make available the information on that payment transaction in accordance with Chapter IV.
- (2) In case of an unauthorized payment transaction, the payer's payment service provider without undue delay refunds to the payer the amount of that unauthorized payment transaction and, where applicable, restore the debited payment account to the state in which it would have been, if the unauthorized payment transaction had not taken place. The refund shall be made in the currency of payment account from which the transaction amount was debited, and where the payment account was not used to make the payment transaction - in the currency in which the payment service provider received the funds from the payer.
- (3) If the payment service provider fails to execute his payment user's indications or deviate from them, where it cannot be considered that the user being aware of the actual situation, would have approved the deviation, the payment service provider is required to pay indemnity under the law applicable to the contract between the payer and his payment service provider.
- (4) Paragraphs (1) to (3) shall apply also to electronic money, except where the payer's payment service provider does not have the ability to freeze the payment account or block the payment instrument.

Article 57. Evidence on authentication and execution of payment transactions

- (1) Where a payment service user denies having authorized an executed payment transaction or claims that the payment transaction was not correctly executed, it is for his payment service provider to prove that the payment transaction was authenticated, accurately recorded, entered in the accounts and not affected by any technical breakdown or other deficiencies.
- (2) Where a payment service user denies having authorized an executed payment transaction, the use of a payment instrument recorded by the payment service provider shall in itself not necessarily be sufficient to prove either that the payment transaction was authorized by the payer or that the payer acted fraudulently or failed with intent or gross negligence to fulfill one or more of his obligations under Article 54. The payment services provider shall provide supporting evidence to prove fraud or gross negligence on part of the payment service user.

[Art.57 completed by Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]

Article 58. Payer's liability for unauthorized payment transactions

- (1) If the payer failed to ensure the safety of the personalized security features of the used payment instrument, he shall bear the losses relating to any unauthorized payment transaction, resulting from the occurrence of an emergency situation (lost, stolen or misappropriated payment instrument), up to a maximum amount agreed between the payment service provider and the user but no more than MDL 2 500.
- (2) The payer shall bear all the losses relating to any unauthorized payment transaction, if he incurred them by acting fraudulently or by failing to fulfill one or more of his obligations under Article 54 with intent or gross negligence. In such cases, the maximum amount referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article shall not apply.
- (3) The payer shall not bear any financial consequences resulting from the occurrence of an emergency situation, after notification in accordance with Article 54 paragraph (1) letter (b), except where he has acted fraudulently.
- (4) If the payment service provider does not provide appropriate means for the notification at all times of a lost, stolen or misappropriated payment instrument, the payer shall not be liable for the financial consequences resulting from use of that payment instrument, except where he has acted fraudulently.
- (5) The provisions of paragraphs (1) to (4) shall also apply to the electronic money, except where the payer's payment service provider is not able to freeze the payment account or block the payment instrument.

Article 59. Refund conditions and procedure for the amount of a payment transaction initiated by or through a payee

(1) The payer is entitled to a refund from his payment service provider of the amount of an authorized payment transaction initiated by/or through a payee, which has been already executed, if the following conditions are met:

a) the authorization does not specify the exact amount of the payment transaction when the authorization was made;

b) the amount of the payment transaction exceeded the amount the payer could reasonably have expected taking into account his previous spending, the conditions in his framework contract and relevant circumstances of the case.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) letter b), the payer may not rely on currency exchange reasons if the reference exchange rate agreed with his payment service provider in accordance with Article 38 paragraph (1) letter d) and Article 42 paragraph (1) item 3) letter b) was applied.

(3) At the payment service provider's request, the payer shall provide factual elements relating to the conditions specified in paragraph (1).

(4) The refund, under the paragraph (1), consists of the full amount of the executed payment transaction.

(5) For direct debits, the payer and his payment service provider may agree in the framework contract that the payer is entitled to a refund from his payment service provider even though the conditions for refund in paragraph (1) are not met.

(6) It may be agreed in the framework contract between the payer and the payment service provider that the payer has no right to a refund where he has given his consent to execute the payment transaction directly to his payment service provider and, where applicable, information on the future payment transaction was provided or made available in an agreed manner to the payer for at least 4 weeks before the due date by the payment service provider or by the payee.

(7) To receive a refund under paragraph (1) or paragraph (5), the payer shall request it from his payment service provider within a period of 8 weeks from the date on which the funds were debited. The refund shall be made in the currency of the payment account from which the transaction amount was debited, and where the payment account was not used to make the payment transaction - in the currency in which the payment service provider received the funds from the payer.

(8) Within 10 business days of receiving a request for a refund, the payment service provider shall either refund the full amount of the payment transaction or refuse to refund the amount, providing justification for refusing the refund and indicating the bodies (institutions) to which the payer may refer the matter, if he does not accept the justification of the refusal. The payment service provider's right to refuse the refund shall not apply in the case set out in paragraph (5).

Section 3

Execution of payment transactions

Article 60. Receipt of payment orders

(1) The point in time of receipt of the payment order is the time when the payment order is transmitted directly by the payer or indirectly by or through a payee, is received by the payer's payment service provider.

(2) If the point in time of receipt is not on a business day for the payer's payment service provider, the payment order shall be deemed to have been received on the following business day.

(3) The payment service provider may establish a cut-off time near the end of a business day beyond which any payment order received shall be deemed to have been received on the following business day.

(4) If the payment service user initiating a payment order and his payment service provider agrees that execution of the payment order shall start on a specific day or at the end of a certain period or on the day on which the payer has set funds at his payment service provider's disposal, the point in time of receipt for the purposes of Article 64 is deemed to be the agreed day. If the agreed day is not a business day for the payment service provider, the payment order received shall be deemed to have been received on the following business day.

Article 61. Refusal to execute payment orders

(1) Where all the conditions of the payer's framework contract are met, the payer's payment service provider may not refuse the execution of an authorized payment order, regardless of whether the payment order was initiated by a payer or by or through a payee, if such execution is not prohibited by other applicable laws.

(2) Where the payment service provider refuses to execute a payment order, he shall notify the payment service user on the refusal and, unless prohibited by other applicable laws, shall communicate the reasons of the refusal and the procedure to correct any factual mistakes that have led to the refusal.

(3) The payment service provider shall provide or make available the notification in an agreed manner at the earliest opportunity and at the latest until the end of the following business day when that payment order was received.

(4) The framework contract may include a condition that the payment service provider may charge for such a notification provided in paragraph (2), in which the refusal is objectively justified.

(5) A payment order which execution was refused shall be deemed as not being received.

Article 62. Irrevocability of a payment order

- (1) A payment order directly transmitted to the payee may not be revoked once it has been received by the payer's payment service provider, if this Article does not provide for otherwise.
- (2) Where the payment transaction is initiated by or through the payee, the payer may not revoke the payment order after transmitting the payment order or giving his consent to execute the payment transaction to the payee.
- (3) In the case of a direct debit and without prejudice to refund rights, the payer may revoke the payment order at the latest by the end of the business day preceding the day agreed for debiting the funds.
- (4) In the case referred to in Article 60 paragraph (4) the payment service user may revoke a payment order at the latest by the end of the business day preceding the agreed day.
- (5) After the time limits specified in paragraphs (1) to (4), the payment order may be revoked only if agreed between the payment service user and his payment service provider. In the case referred to in paragraphs (2) and (3), the payee's agreement shall also be required.
- (6) If agreed in the framework contract, the payment service provider may charge for revocation.

Article 63. Amounts transferred and amounts received

- (1) The payment service provider of the payer, the payment service provider of the payee and any intermediaries of the payment service providers transfer the full amount of the payment transaction and refrain from deducting charges from the amount transferred, except for the case provided in paragraph (2).
- (2) The payment service provider of the payee may deduct charges from the amount transferred before crediting the payee with that amount only if so was agreed between them in advance.
- (3) In the case provided in paragraph (2), the full amount of the payment transaction and charges shall be separated in the information given to the payee.
- (4) If any charges, other than those referred to in paragraph (2), are deducted from the amount transferred:
 - a) the payment service provider of the payer shall ensure that the payee receives the full amount of the payment transaction initiated by the payer;
 - b) in cases where the payment transaction is initiated by or through the payee, his payment service provider shall ensure that the full amount of the payment transaction is received by the payee.

Article 64. Payment transactions to a payment account

- (1) The payer's payment service provider shall ensure that, after the point in time of the payment order receipt in accordance with Article 60, the amount of payment transaction is credited to the payee's payment service provider's account at the latest by the end of the next business day.
- (2) After the receipt of funds, the payment service provider of the payee shall value date and make available the amount of the payment transaction to the payee's payment account, in accordance with Article 67.
- (3) The payee's payment service provider shall transmit a payment order initiated by or through the payee to the payer's payment service provider within the time limits agreed between the payee and his payment service provider, enabling settlement, as far as direct debit is concerned, on the agreed due date.

Article 65. Payment transactions in the absence of payee's payment account with the payment service provider

Where the payee is a natural person who does not have a payment account with the payment service provider, the funds shall be made available to the payee by the payment service provider who receives the funds for the payee within the period specified in Article 64.

Article 66. Cash placed on a payment account

- (1) Where a payment service user is a consumer and places cash on a payment account with that payment service provider in the currency of that payment account, the payment service provider shall ensure that the amount is made available and value dated immediately after the point of time of the receipt of the funds.
- (2) Where the payment service user is not a consumer, the amount shall be made available and value dated at the latest on the next business day after the receipt of the funds.

Article 67. Value date and availability of funds

- (1) The credit value date for the payee's payment account is no later than the business day on which the amount of the payment transaction is credited to the payee's payment service provider's account.
- (2) The payment service provider of the payee shall ensure that the amount of the payment transaction is at the payee's disposal immediately after that amount is credited to the payee's payment service provider's account.
- (3) The debit value date for the payer's payment account is no earlier than the point in time at which the amount of the payment transaction is debited to that payment account.

Article 68. Special requirements for payment transactions of natural persons using cash payment terminals

- (1) Where a payment service provider uses a cash payment terminal (cash-in terminal) to receive cash from the natural person to execute a payment transaction, such terminal should automatically ensure that:

- a) the information on the name of the good or service for which the payment obligation is executed by the natural person to the payee – is received from the payer;
 - b) the payer is provided, before he introduces the cash, at least the information specified in Article 38 paragraph (1) letters a) to c);
 - c) the cash introduced (deposited) by the payer is received.
- (2) The cash payment terminal used by the payment service provider shall ensure that the payer receives a receipt, on which is printed at least the following data:
- a) name of document;
 - b) information specified in Article 39 paragraph (1) letters a) to c), and e);
 - c) date, point in time when the cash is received, number of the receipt and of the cash register machine;
 - d) address of the place (location) of the cash payment terminal;
 - e) name and head office address of the payment service provider who received the cash, and his IDNO, and contact telephone numbers.
- (3) The use of cash payment terminal to receive cash in foreign currency shall be prohibited.
- (4) In cases where the Law on preventing and combating money laundering and terrorism financing provides for mandatory measures to identify the natural person - payer, the payment service provider is not entitled to receive cash for the execution of the payment transaction without the participation of the natural person assigned by the payment service provider and to use cash payment terminals for receiving such payments.
- (5) After the payment execution is confirmed by the cash payment terminal and the given receipt is received, the natural person is exempted from any liability for the payment made through the cash payment terminal to the address of the payee, payee's payment service provider or payer's payment service provider.

Section 4 Liability

Article 69. Incorrect unique identifiers

- (1) If a payment order is executed in accordance with the unique identifier, the payment order shall be deemed to have been executed correctly with regard to the payee specified by the unique identifier.
- (2) If the unique identifier provided by the payment service user is incorrect, the payment service provider shall not be liable under Article 70 for non-execution or defective execution of the payment transaction. The payer's payment service provider shall make reasonable efforts to recover the funds involved in the payment transaction.
- (3) If the parties agreed in the framework contract, the payment service provider may charge the payment service user for recovery transaction.
- (4) If the payment service user provides information additional to that specified in Article 38 paragraph (1) letter a) or Article 42 paragraph (1) item 2) letter b), the payment service provider shall be liable only for the execution of payment transactions in accordance with the unique identifier provided by the payment service user.

Article 70. Non-execution or defective execution of payment transactions

- (1) Where a payment order is initiated by the payer, his payment service provider shall, without prejudice to Article 56 paragraph (1), Article 69 paragraphs (2) to (4) and Article 73, be liable to the payer for correct execution of the payment transaction, unless he can prove to the payer and, where relevant, to the payee's payment service provider that the payee's payment service provider received the amount of the payment transaction in accordance with Article 64 paragraph (1), in which case, the payee's payment service provider shall be liable to the payee for the correct execution of the payment transaction.
- (2) Where the payer's payment service provider is liable under paragraph (1), he shall without undue delay refund to the payer the amount of the non-executed or defective payment transaction and, where applicable, restore the debited payment account to the state in which it would have been, if the defective payment transaction had not taken place. The refund shall be made in the currency of the payment account from which the transaction amount was debited, and where the payment account was not used to make the payment transaction - in the currency in which the payment service provider received the funds from the payer.
- (3) Where the payee's payment service provider is liable under paragraph (1), he shall immediately place the amount of the payment transaction at the payee's disposal and, where applicable, credit the corresponding amount to the payee's payment account.
- (4) In the case of a non-executed or defectively executed payment transaction, where the payment order is initiated by the payer, his payment service provider shall regardless of liability under paragraphs (1) to (3), on request, make immediate efforts to identify and trace the payment transaction and notify the payer of the outcome.
- (5) Where a payment order is initiated by or through the payee, his payment service provider shall, without prejudice to Article 56 paragraph (1), Article 69 paragraphs (2) to (4) and Article 73, be liable to the payee for correct transmission of the payment order to the payment service provider of the payer in accordance with Article 64 paragraph (3).
- (6) Where the payee's payment service provider is liable under paragraph (5), he shall immediately re-transmit the payment order in question to the payment service provider of the payer.
- (7) The payment service provider of the payee shall, without prejudice to Article 56 paragraph (1), Article 69 paragraphs (2) to (4) and Article 73, be liable to the payee for handling the payment transaction in accordance with his obligations under Article 67.

(8) Where the payee's payment service provider is liable under paragraph (7), he shall ensure that the amount of the payment transaction is at the payee's disposal immediately after that amount of the payment transaction is credited to the payee's payment service provider's account.

(9) In the case of a non-executed or defectively executed payment transaction for which the payee's payment service provider is not liable under the paragraphs (5) to (8), the payer's payment service provider shall be liable to the payer. In this case, the payer's payment service provider shall, as appropriate and without undue delay, refund to the payer the amount of the non-executed or defective payment transaction and restore the debited payment account to the state in which it would have been had the defective payment transaction not taken place. The refund shall be made in the currency of the payment account from which the transaction amount was debited, and where the payment account was not used to make the payment transaction - in the currency in which the payment service provider received the funds from the payer.

(10) In the case of a non-executed or defectively executed payment transaction, where the payment order is initiated by or through the payee, his payment service provider shall, regardless of liability under paragraphs (5) to (9), on request, make immediate efforts to identify and trace the payment transaction and notify the payee of the outcome.

(11) The payment service provider shall be liable to his respective payment service user for any charges for which he is responsible, including any interest to which the payment service user is subject as a result of non-execution or defective execution of the payment transaction.

Article 71. Additional financial compensation

Any financial compensation additional to that provided for under Articles 69 and 70 may be determined in accordance with the law applicable to the contract concluded between the payment service user and his payment service provider provides that.

Article 72. Right of recourse

(1) Where the liability of a payment service provider under Article 70 is attributable to another payment service provider or to an intermediary, that payment service provider or intermediary shall compensate the first payment service provider for any losses incurred or sums paid under Article 70.

(2) Further financial compensation may be determined in accordance with agreements between payment service providers and/or intermediaries and the laws applicable to the agreement concluded between them.

Article 73. No liability

Liability under Sections 2, 3 and 4 shall not apply in cases of abnormal and unforeseeable circumstances beyond the control of the party pleading for the application of those circumstances, the consequences of which would have been unavoidable despite all efforts to the contrary, or where a payment service provider is required to comply with legislation.

- (2) Loans (credits) shall not be granted from the funds received or held for the purpose of electronic money issuance.

Section 2

Establishment, licensing and the activity of the electronic money institution

Article 79. Establishment of the electronic money institution

- (1) An electronic money institution may be legally established as a joint stock company or a limited liability company and shall be bound by the legislation governing the business of commercial institutions, unless otherwise specified in this Law.
- (2) The provisions of Article 9 paragraph (2) shall also apply to the electronic money institution accordingly.

Article 80. Mandatory nature of the license

The person who intends to issue and transfer electronic money as an institution issuing electronic money on the territory of the Republic of Moldova is obliged to obtain a license before starting this kind of activity.

[Art.80 in the redaction of the Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]

Article 81. The authority competent to issue licenses

The National Bank shall have the exclusive right to issue to and withdraw licenses for electronic money issuance.

Article 82. Equity capital

- (1) The electronic money institution shall hold, at the time of submitting the application for licensing, equity capital of at least MDL 6 000 000.
- (2) The equity capital shall be formed, the contributions shall be deposited /the payment of electronic money institution's shares shall be made under Article 12, which shall apply accordingly.

Article 83. Regulatory capital

- (1) The electronic money institution shall hold, at all times of its business, regulatory capital which shall not fall below the level of the amount referred to in paragraphs (2), (3), (4¹) or in article 82, the larger amount being taken into account.
- (2) For the activities listed in Article 7 paragraph (2), which do not have any link with the issuance of electronic money, the requirement for the electronic money institution to have its regulatory capital shall be calculated in compliance with the Article 13 paragraph (2).

(3) For electronic money issuance, the regulatory capital shall amount to at least 2% of the average outstanding electronic money. The average outstanding electronic money means the average total amount of financial liabilities related to electronic money in issue at the end of each calendar day over the preceding six calendar months, calculated on the first calendar day of each calendar month and applied for that calendar month.

[Paragraph (4), art.83 repealed by the Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]

(4¹) In case when electronic money issuing institutions conduct any of the activities referred to in art. 88 par. (1) letter. a) and which are not related to the issuance of electronic money or carry out any of the activities mentioned in art. 88 para. (1) letters b) -d) and par. (1¹) and the value of electronic money in circulation is not known in advance, e-money companies shall be allowed to calculate the regulated capital requirements on the basis of a representative amount deemed to be used for the issuance of electronic money, provided that a representative amount can be reasonably estimated on the basis of historical data and in a satisfactory manner for the National Bank. In case the electronic money issuing institution does not have a sufficiently long activity, the regulated capital requirements shall be calculated on the basis of the amount of electronic money in circulation foreseen in the business plan, taking into account any adjustment of the respective plan required by the National Bank.

(5) The eligible elements for calculating the regulatory capital, method of its calculation, frequency, form and contents of the reports on the amount of the capital shall be provided in the normative acts of the National Bank.

(5¹) It is prohibited the utilization of multiple eligible items used to calculate the regulated capital of an electronic money issuing institution if it belongs to a group to which another electronic money-issuing institution, a bank, a payment institution or an entity of the financial sector is a part. This paragraph shall also apply in case an electronic money issuing institution performs activities other than the issuance of electronic money.

(6) On the basis of an evaluation of the risk-management processes, risk loss data base and internal control mechanisms of the electronic money institution, the National Bank may require the electronic money institution to hold an amount of regulatory capital which is up to 20% higher than the amount which would result from the application of the method used in accordance with this Article, or permit the electronic money institution to hold an amount of regulatory capital which is up to 20% lower than the amount which would result from the application of the method used in accordance with this Article.

[Art.83 amended by the Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]

Article 84. Rules on licensing electronic money institution

- f) hampering the safety and soundness of the payment system, payment service provider or electronic money issuer, including engagement in other business not related to the payment service provision or electronic money issuance.

Article 98. Identification of infringements

- (1) Deeds constituting infringements shall be identified based on the reports, other information provided in compliance with the law and normative acts or during the on-site or/and off-site inspections, or based on the written notification submitted by the payments service user, electronic money holder or other interested person.
- (2) Finding of infringements is made, where appropriate, through study and analysis of the charter, regulations and internal policies, reports and the internal documents prepared as a result of executed operations, accounting acts, internal and external acts of business (contracts, certificates, minutes, applications, informative notes, etc.), including on the shareholders / associates, beneficial owners, customers, counter-agents of the person subject to control, other documents and data on paper and / or electronic form.
- (3) The on-site inspection shall be carried out based on a decision in writing of the supervisory authority which indicates: the number and date of decision; the name and the address of the inspected person; the type of inspection (comprehensive, thematic, unforeseen and planned); where needed, the inspected period of activity (except for the inspection of elimination of infringements previously identified); date of commencement of inspection; name, surname of the inspectors authorized to carry out the inspection; title, name, surname and signature of the person which issued the decision.
- (4) The off-site inspection shall be carried out without having a written decision issued.
- (5) Based on the on-site inspection it is prepared a statement (report) on the inspection results, in 2 copies, which will state: the date and place it was drawn up; the date and number of the decision based on which the inspection was carried out; the name and address of the inspected person, and where the representative of inspected person is present - his name, surname and title; period of inspection (date); information on the inspection results, including the infringements identified and their nature; when handing over the statement - the name, surname, title of the executive body manager /representative of the inspected person who received the statement, the date of receipt and his signature or refusal to take over /sign the statement; the name, surname and signatures of the inspectors who carried out the inspection. The date of drawing up the statement on inspection results shall be considered the date of its handing over (receiving) as defined in paragraph (6).
- (6) A copy of the preliminary statement on the on-site inspection results shall be sent (handed over) to the inspected person (his representative) to be signed. If the inspected person disagrees with the statement, it is entitled to submit in writing, within 5 business days of drawing up of that statement, the argumentation of the disagreement, enclosing the required documents. As a result of examination of the objections and explanations of the inspected person, the act on the results of the on-site inspection (in 2 copies) shall be prepared, a copy of which shall be sent (handed over) to the inspected person.
- (7) The on-site inspection of payment service provision activity by the bank specified in this Law shall be carried out taking into account the features provided in the Law on the National Bank of Moldova.
- (71) On the basis of the results of the off-site inspection, an act (report) on the results of the inspection shall be drawn up, in 2 copies, indicating: the date and the place of drawing up; the name and location of the inspected person; inspection period (date); information on the results of the inspection, including the infringements found and their nature; in the case of handing over the act - name, surname, position of the head of the executive body / representative of the inspected person who received the document, date of receipt and signature thereof or refusal to accept / sign the document; the names, surnames and signatures of the inspectors who have carried out the inspection. The date of drafting the act on the results of the inspection shall be considered the date of its handing over (receipt) according to paragraph (8).
- (8) When the infringements are identified during the off-site inspection, the inspected person shall get familiarized with the information on the infringements identified by sending a copy of the preliminary act on the results of the off-site inspection. If there are any disagreements with the results of the off-site inspection, the person concerned is entitled to submit, within 5 business days of the date of handing over (receiving) that information, his arguments in writing on the disagreement, enclosing the required documents. As a result of examination of the objections and explanations of the inspected person, the act on the results of the off-site inspection (in 2 copies) shall be prepared, a copy of which shall be sent (handed over) to the inspected person.
- (9) The date of identifying the infringement shall be considered:
 - a) for on-site inspection - the date of drawing up of the statement on inspection results;
 - b) for off-site inspection - the date of informing the person of the identified infringements.
- (10) By derogation from the provisions of paragraphs 6 and 8, in case it is considered necessary to urgently adopt a decision to prevent significant damage to the payment systems, the National Bank can dispose the application of sanctions and measures without prior notice to the inspected person of the information on the infringements found and without granting to the person involved a time period to present the argument of disagreement. In such cases, by way of derogation from the provisions of paragraph 9, the date of the finding of the infringement shall be deemed to be the date of the adoption of the decision stipulated in this paragraph.

[Art.98 amended by the Law no.208 of 12.10.2018, in force 23.12.2018]
