NBM and OSCE discuss progress on Moldova's economic growth agenda

The cooperation between the National Bank of Moldova (NBM) and the Office of the Coordinator of Economic and Environmental Activities of the OSCE was the topic tackled today at the NBM during the meeting of the Governor Anca Dragu with Bakyt Dzhusupov, Ambassador, coordinator of the Economic and Environmental Activities of the OSCE.

The meeting was focused on strategic cooperation and solutions identification for the current economic challenges.

Anca Dragu mentioned that the NBM carefully monitors internal and external economic developments and comes up with the necessary measures to achieve the fundamental goals of the central bank.

At the same time, there was emphasized the OSCE's continued support for Moldova's economic growth plan.

The discussions, which were also attended by the First Deputy Governor of the NBM, Vladimir Munteanu, included future collaboration following the Ministerial Conference of the Partnership Platform for Moldova, an initiative of Romania, France and Germany, aimed at mobilizing international support for economic and political reforms in Moldova.
