The Governor of the National Bank of Moldova, Anca Dragu, today submitted to the Parliament the nomination of the Minister of Finance, Petru Rotaru, as Deputy Governor of the central bank. The decision is part of the National Bank of Moldova's efforts to ensure the stability and ongoing development of the financial sector in the Republic of Moldova.

Petru Rotaru holds the position of Minister of Finance since 2023 and has extensive experience in the financial sector, demonstrating outstanding qualities throughout his career. He graduated from the Academy of Economic Studies of Moldova in 2007, specializing in finance and accounting, and obtained a master's degree in law from the same institution between 2010 and 2012.

His professional career has included positions in the financial sector and public administration. Between 2016 and 2023, he was a member of the Court of Accounts of the Republic of Moldova, and later took over the leadership of the State Tax Service.

"We are convinced that Mr. Rotaru's experience, integrity and reputation will make a significant contribution to the National Bank's mission and to the strengthening of Moldova's financial system," says NBM Governor Anca Dragu.

The proposal for the appointment of Petru Rotaru is to be put to a vote in the Parliament of the Republic of Moldova.
