NBM opens its doors for the future specialists of the country

More than 100 students and Master's level students of the country's higher education institutions are expected on Tuesday, 18 February 2020, at the National Bank of Moldova (NBM) to learn more about the central bank's activity. This will take place within the Career day at the NBM organised for the first time by the institution.

The event is part of a series of measures that the NBM proposes to take in order to communicate more intensively with the studious youth and to offer a good career start for the more courageous ones. Thus, over more hours, the participants will have the opportunity to attend specialized workshops and to get interesting information from first source, the best specialists of the NBM fields of activity, with the aim to develop a constructive Face to Face dialogue between the students and employer. At the same time, the participants will found out about the central bank's offers on vacant positions and what they need to know in order to be able to apply for employment competitions organized by the NBM. The students will be also invited to address questions, to express their opinions and expectations towards the NBM as a potential employer.

The interested participants may register by sending a request to the e-mail: resurse.umane@bnm.md [2] or at the phone number 0 (22) 822 344.

The initiative comes to promote the interest for the professional development of the future specialists in the context of the collaboration commitment with the higher education institutions of the country. The NBM has partnership agreements with the Academy of Economic Studies of Moldova (AESM), Technical University of Moldova (TUM) and the Moldova State University (MSU).
