Chapter 1 General Provisions

1. This Regulation has been elaborated based on the Law on the National Bank of Moldova no.548-XIII of 21 July 1995 of the Republic of Moldova.

2. Banks shall keep their required reserves in Moldovan Lei and freely convertible currency in accounts opened in the bookkeeping registers of the National Bank of Moldova under the conditions of this Regulation.

[Item 2 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

Chapter II Definitions

3. The following definitions shall be used in this Regulation:

“Required reserves” (RR) –banks’ funds held in Moldovan lei (MDL) or freely convertible currency (FCC) on accounts opened with the National Bank of Moldova.

“Calculation base” - the average daily balance for the tracking period of means attracted from deposit accounts and other similar liabilities subject to reserving within class II “Liabilities” of bank’s balance sheets. The average daily balance for the tracking period shall be determined taking into account the number of calendar days of the tracking period.

“Tracking period” - the time period for which the calculation base is determined.

“Maintenance period” – means the time period within which banks are obliged to maintain in their accounts opened with the National Bank of Moldova the established value of required reserves.

“Established value of required reserves” – the product between the calculation base and reserve ratio.

“Effective value of required reserves” – real value of funds in the relevant account indicated by the National Bank of Moldova.

“Excess reserves with the NBM” – the amount that exceeds the established value of required reserves in reserves holding account with the National Bank of Moldova.

“Reserves deficit” –the deficient amount against established value of required reserves in a reserves holding account with the National Bank of Moldova.

Chapter III Required Reserves Calculation Base

4. Required Reserves Calculation Base shall be formed of money means in Moldovan lei, non-convertible currencies and freely convertible currencies, reflected in the balance sheet of banks in accounts of class II “Liabilities”.

[Item 4 amended by the Decision of CA of NBM no.307 of 16.11.2006, in force on 01.04.2007]

4<sup>1</sup>. From the Required Reserves Calculation Base shall be exempted:

1. funds obtained from the National Bank of Moldova;
2. funds obtained from resident banks;
3. banks' own funds that are reflected in the balance sheets in the accounts of class II “Liabilities”.

[Item 4<sup>1</sup> inserted by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.111 of 26.05.2011, in force on 08.07.2011]

5. Required Reserves Calculation Base shall be indicated in Attachment no.6 of this Regulation.

[Item 5 in the wording of the Decision of CA of NBM no.307 of 16.11.2006, in force on 01.04.2007]

Chapter IV Required Reserves Ratio and Reserving Principles

6. The required reserves ratio shall be established and amended by the Executive Board of the National Bank of Moldova in conformity with traced objectives of the Monetary and Foreign Exchange Policy of the National Bank of Moldova.

7. Banks shall establish RR following calculation base, as set by the Executive Board of the National Bank of Moldova for the relevant period separately:

- From financial means attracted in MDL and non-convertible currencies reserving shall be conducted in MDL;
- From financial means attracted in FCC reserving shall be conducted in US$ and / or EUR.

7<sup>1</sup>. A required reserves ratio of 0% shall apply to the following categories of attracted funds:

a) term deposits with an agreed maturity of over two years that meet the following characteristics:

- term deposits with an agreed maturity of over two years, with or without the right to supplement the deposit account during the deposit period, which do not provide reimbursement of deposits before the agreed maturity;
- term deposits with an agreed maturity of over two years, which conditions do not provide for supplements, but provide the reimbursement of deposits during deposit period on pre-established terms, after a deposit period of more than two years.

For deposits with the right to supplement the deposit account and for deposits providing for the condition of interest capitalization in the deposit account, the required reserves ratio of 0% shall be applied to the initial amounts of the deposit, to supplemented amounts and to the capitalized interest amounts with a maturity of over two years.

Formation of deposits under the mentioned conditions do not affect the right of depositor to demand the repayment of all or part of the deposit amount consigned before the agreed term;

b) deposit - guarantees and loans with an agreed maturity of over two years.

To the amount of deposit - guarantees and loans, whose repayment is carried out gradually according to contractual conditions, shall be applied a zero required reserves ratio for the part of the deposit-guarantees and for the part of the loans with a maturity period of more than two years.

c) securities issued by banks with an initial maturity of over two years, conditions for issuance of which do not provide redemption before their maturity.

[Item 7<sup>1</sup> amended by the Decision of the CA of NBM no.180 of 09.07.2015, in force on 08.10.2015]

[Item 7<sup>1</sup> amended by the Decision of the CA of NBM no.251 of 11.11.2011, in force on 08.12.2011]

[Item 7<sup>1</sup> inserted by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.111 of 26.05.2011, in force on 08.07.2011]

[Item 8 excluded by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

Chapter V

Establishment of Required Reserves in Moldovan Lei

9. Reserving from means attracted in MDL and non-convertible currencies shall be conducted by maintaining funds in MDL with the National Bank of Moldova on bank's Loro account or on account of required Reserves in national currency in the value set by NBM.

[Item 9 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

10. Banks that failed to comply with the established value of required reserves in MDL for two consecutive maintenance periods shall maintain the required reserves from financial means attracted in MDL and non-convertible currencies in the Required Reserves account in national currency with the NBM.

[Item 10 in the wording of the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.180 of 09.07.2015, in force on 08.10.2015]

[Item 10 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.227 of 18.11.2010, in force on 01.01.2011]

[Item 10 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.133 of 17.07.2008, in force on 19.08.2008]

[Item 10 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

10<sup>1</sup>. NBM may decide the maintenance of required reserves from financial means attracted in MDL and non-convertible currencies in the Required Reserves account in national currency with the NBM for banks that fail to comply with the requirements of liquidity ratios (Principle I and II) and/or of regulatory capital (the capital adequacy ratio and the minimum required capital).

[Item 10<sup>1</sup> inserted by the Decision of CA of NBM no. 180 of 09.07.2015, in force on 08.10.2015]

11. The tracking period of financial means attracted in MDL and non-convertible currencies is the interval between the 8th of the previous month and 7th of the current month.

For the banks holding the required reserves in MDL in Loro account at the NBM, the maintenance period is the interval between the 8th of the current month and the 7th of the next month.

For the banks holding the required reserves in MDL in the required Reserves account in national currency, the deadline for completing the required reserve account shall be established no later than the 12th of the current month.

[Item 11 in the wording of the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.227 of 18.11.2010, in force on 01.01.2011]

[Item 11 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

11'. The amount of required reserves to be held in Loro accounts with the NBM within the maintenance period under item 11 shall be calculated by banks based on the size of the calculation basis of the tracking period of attracted means. Banks shall ensure holding of the established required reserves level in Loro accounts with the NBM during the maintenance period.

NBM shall verify the maintenance by banks of the established required reserves level in Loro accounts with the NBM during the maintenance period according to the reports submitted by banks.

[Item 11' amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.227 of 18.11.2010, in force on 01.01.2011]

[Item 11' inserted by the Decision of CA of NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

[Item 12 excluded by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.227 of 18.11.2010, in force on 01.01.2011]

[Item 12 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

[Item 12 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.261 of 25.08.2005, in force on 02.09.2005]

13. In case of reduction of attracted financial means of banks, holding the required reserves on Required Reserve Account in national currency with the NBM, the National Bank shall reimburse the excess required reserves from the mentioned account within 3 working days from the delivery date of the tracking period report.

[Item 13 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

14. Banks keeping the required reserves in their Loro accounts with the NBM shall be allowed to carry out during the day transactions that will decrease the RR in MDL at the end of the day under the established value. In this case, until the end of maintenance period, banks shall replenish their RR as to comply with the established value of average reserves in MDL for the tracking period.

15. Recalculation in MDL of amounts attracted in non-convertible currencies shall be conducted on a daily basis in accordance with the official exchange rate of MDL for the relevant date.

[Item 15 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.111 of 26.05.2011, in force on 08.07.2011]

Chapter VI

Establishment of Required Reserves in freely convertible currency

16. Establishment of RR from financial means attracted in USD and EUR shall be conducted in USD and EUR, respectively. Establishment of RR from financial means attracted in other convertible currencies shall be conducted in USD or EUR, upon bank's decision, which can be amended only once a year, by duly giving notice to the NBM 10 days prior the new calendar year.

Recalculation in USD or EUR of amounts attracted in other convertible currencies shall be made on a daily basis following cross-rate against USD or EUR, based on the official exchange rate of the MDL.

[Item 16 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.111 of 26.05.2011, in force on 08.07.2011]

17. Establishment of RR from financial means attracted in FCC shall be conducted following holding of banks' funds in FCC on Required Reserves account in foreign currency with the NBM, in a value set for the relevant tracking period.

[Item 17 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

18. For purposes of recording and tracking banks' holding of RR in FCC with the NBM, each bank shall be opened separate analytic accounts for RR in USD and EUR.

Banks shall receive written notice about number, name of analytic accounts used for recording of RR in USD and EUR, as well as the number of Nostro accounts in USD and EUR of the NBM with foreign banks.

19. The tracking period of attracted funds in convertible currencies is the interval between the 8th of the previous month and 7th of the current month.

The deadline for completion of Required Reserves in foreign currency account held at the NBM shall be no later than the 14th of the current month.

[Item 19 in the wording of the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.227 of 18.11.2010, in force on 01.01.2011]

[Item 19 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

[Item 19 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.261 of 25.08.2005, in force on 02.09.2005]

20. Banks shall transfer the respective amounts in Nostro accounts in USD and EUR of the NBM within a certain timeframe in order to allow their entering in the Required Reserves account in foreign currency in the NBM bookkeeping registers as in accordance with terms stipulated in item 19.

At the date of transferring the necessary amounts for the completion of the RR account in foreign currency (in USD and/or EUR), at the same time with the transfer performance, banks are obliged to confirm the transfer performance by sending to the NBM a SWIFT MT 299 message regarding the transfer amount, the currency and the date for the purposes of tracking by the NBM of due recording of transferred amounts.

[Item 20 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

20'. NBM shall record the transferred amount in order to complete the bank's RR account in foreign currency in the NBM bookkeeping registers based on the respective SWIFT messages (credit confirmation or statement of account), on the date of their receipt from the correspondent banks of the NBM.

In case the respective SWIFT messages were received by NBM later than 16:30, Chisinau time, of the operational day, the transferred amount will be recorded in RR account in foreign currency on the following operational day.

[Item 20' inserted by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.338 of 27.12.2007, in force on 21.02.2008]

21. In case of reduction of financial means attracted in FCC, the NBM shall, from the account of paid reserves, transfer the relevant amount to the bank's account in USD or EUR within 4 working days from the delivery date of the tracking period report.

At the date of transferring RR amounts in FCC (in USD and / or EUR), the NBM shall confirm transfer performance by sending to banks a SWIFT MT 299 authorized message providing the transfer amount, currency and date for purposes of tracking by banks of due recording of transferred amounts.

[Item 21 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.133 of 17.07.2008, in force on 19.08.2008]

Chapter VII

Execution of Reserves Requirements

22. Reserve requirements shall be considered fulfilled if the commercial banks maintaining RR in MDL and FCC in relevant accounts with the NBM at the value established for the relating tracking period.

23. Reserve requirements shall be considered fulfilled as follows:

1. for the commercial banks, maintaining RR in MDL on Loro accounts with the NBM – if the bank, following calculation base in MDL for the maintenance period, has maintained on an average during the relevant period the established value of RR in Loro account;
2. for the commercial banks, holding RR in MDL separately in Required Reserves account in national currency with the NBM – if the bank transferred to the Required Reserves account in national currency within the term provided in item 11 the amount necessary to replenish the RR to the established value, according to the calculation base in MDL for the relevant tracking period.

[Item 23 amended by the Decision of the CA of the NBM no.227 of 18.11.2010, in force on 01.01.2011]
