Chapter I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Object of the Law

This Law shall establish the general principles of foreign exchange regulation in the Republic of Moldova, the rights and the obligations of residents and non-residents related to the foreign exchange field, as well as the powers of the authorities of foreign exchange control and the competence of agents of foreign exchange control.

Article 2. Foreign exchange legislation

(1) The foreign exchange legislation of the Republic of Moldova shall include this Law, the Law on the National Bank of Moldova no.548-XIII of 21 July 1995, other legislative acts in the part that regulates the relations relevant to the foreign exchange regulation, the normative acts worked out for the enforcement of the above-mentioned legislative acts, including the normative acts of the National Bank of Moldova, as well as the international treaties in which the Republic of Moldova acts as a party.

(2) In the event that an international treaty in which the Republic of Moldova acts as a party establishes provisions other than those stipulated in the foreign exchange legislation of the Republic of Moldova, the provisions of the international treaty shall be applied.

Article 3. Main notions

For the purpose of this Law, the following main notions shall be used:

1) foreign exchange regulation – the set of legal norms regarding the performance and reporting of foreign exchange operations, licensing and carrying out of the activity of foreign exchange entities, as well as those concerning the foreign exchange control, established in order to implement the State’s foreign exchange policy and ensure the internal foreign exchange market stability;

2) foreign exchange operations:

a) operations related to the transfer of the property right and of other rights (without receiving other assets in exchange) over the foreign currency, securities and payment instruments denominated in foreign currency, as well as the operations within which foreign currency and payment instruments denominated in foreign currency are used as means of payment;

b) operations related to the transfer of the property right and of other rights (without receiving other assets in exchange) over the national currency, securities and payment instruments denominated in national currency, as well as the operations within which national currency and payment instruments denominated in national currency are used as means of payment;

(9) Residents shall have the right to open accounts in foreign currency with licensed banks and payment accounts in foreign currency with resident non-bank payment service providers.

National Bank of Moldova shall have the right to establish conditions and procedures for performing foreign exchange operations through bank accounts /payment accounts in national currency and foreign currency opened by residents with licensed banks/resident non-bank payment service providers.

(9<sup>1</sup>) For the purpose of this Law, bank accounts that are opened with licensed banks shall also include payments accounts that are opened with licensed banks in their capacity as payment service providers and electronic money issuers, under the Law on payment services and electronic money no.114 of 18 May 2012.

(10) The transmission between residents on the territory of the Republic of Moldova of securities denominated in foreign currency as a result of donation, inheritance/legacy or in cases of legal succession provided for by the legislation of the Republic of Moldova shall be made without restrictions.

The transmission between non-residents on the territory of the Republic of Moldova of securities denominated in national currency and foreign currency as a result of donation, inheritance/legacy or in cases of legal succession provided for by the legislation shall be made without restrictions.

(11) The marketing of coins containing precious metals on the territory of the Republic of Moldova, as well as other transactions and operations, the object of which are coins containing precious metals, shall be made in compliance with the legislation that regulates the precious metals and articles thereof.

(12) In cases where this Law provides for quantitative ceilings in euro, as well as in the cases provided for in Article 42<sup>1</sup> paragraph (2) letter c), paragraph (3) letter f) and in Article 44 paragraph (4), the determination of the equivalent in another currency shall be performed by applying the official exchange rate of Moldovan leu, as established by the National Bank of Moldova.

[Article 4 amended by Law No 209 of 15.07.2022 in force as of 05.08.2023]

[Article 4 amended by Law No 363 of 29.12.2022, in force as of 20.07.2023]

Section 2. Current foreign exchange operations

Article 5. Provisions on current foreign exchange operations

(1) Current foreign exchange operations shall mean the foreign exchange operations between residents and non-residents, performed for purposes other than capital transfer.

(2) Payments and transfers within current foreign exchange operations shall include the following, but not limited to:

a) payments within the international trade of goods and services, including works, as well as payments and transfers within bank credit facilities related to international trade (for instance, letters of credit, overdrafts, overnight credits, credit cards) with initial repayment period not exceeding one year;

b) payments representing the interest on loans/credits and net income from other investments;

c) payments for the repayment of loans/credits or amortization of direct investments;

d) transfer of funds intended to cover family living expenses (hereinafter referred to as family expenses);

e) payments and transfers within other operations, which are not of the nature of capital foreign exchange operations, for instance: payments related to medical treatments, travel expenses, study expenses; payments related to duties and taxes, except for the duties and taxes related to inheritances; penalties; payments related to court expenses; payments and transfers related to technical assistance; payments related to social insurance, including pensions; payment of membership fees in international organizations, public, religious or other non-profit organisations.

Section 3. Capital foreign exchange operations

Article 6. General provisions on capital foreign exchange operations

(1) Capital foreign exchange operations shall mean the foreign exchange operations between residents and non-residents, as well as some unilateral transfers into/from the Republic of Moldova made for the purpose of capital transfer.

(2) Capital foreign exchange operations shall include the foreign exchange operations, other than those specified in Article 5 paragraph (2), resulting from:

- a) operations related to direct investments;
- b) operations with real estate;
- c) operations with financial instruments;
- d) commercial loans/credits;
- e) financial loans/credits;
- f) guarantees;
- g) operations in current and deposit accounts with licensed banks/ non-resident banks;
- h) operations related to life insurance;
- i) personal operations;
- j) import and export of foreign exchange values;
- k) other capital operations.

(3) The provisions of section 3 of this Chapter, except for the paragraph (9) of this Article, shall not be applied to foreign exchange operations related to import and export of foreign exchange values, which are regulated by the provisions of Chapter III.

(4) Capital foreign exchange operations implying the inflow of capital into the Republic of Moldova shall be performed without restrictions, unless otherwise provided for by the legislation of the Republic of Moldova that regulates the field relevant to respective capital foreign exchange operations.

(5) The capital foreign exchange operations, which imply the inflow of capital into the Republic of Moldova in case of residents receiving from non-residents loans/credits referred to in paragraph (6), shall be the subject of the notification regime, which has the purpose of recording by the National Bank of Moldova of the obligations arising from the mentioned operations, as a result of the notification of these operations by residents.

(5<sup>1</sup>) Recording by the National Bank of Moldova of loans/credits referred to in paragraph (6) shall not imply the assumption by the National Bank of Moldova of the liabilities related to these loans/credits and shall not mean approval or authorization by the National Bank of Moldova of these operations.

(5<sup>2</sup>) The National Bank of Moldova shall use the data related to loans/credits recorded through the notification procedure and the data related to the operations carried out within them in order to fulfil its duties established by law, including the elaboration of external debt statistics of the Republic of Moldova, the balance of payments, the international investment position, and the economic and monetary analyses.

(6) Loans/credits shall be subject to notification in case of:

1) interest-bearing commercial loans/credits, except for the receiving of loans/credits by the adhering entity (resident supplier) from the non-resident factor within the factoring operation, in the event that the non-resident factor assumes the risk of insolvency of the non-resident debtor for the undertaken debt;

2) financial loans/credits, except for the following:

a) interbank credits with the initial repayment period not exceeding one year;

b) loans/credits received from non-residents by using credit cards issued by non-residents at the request of residents;

4) loans/credits within operations related to direct investments.

National Bank of Moldova shall establish the conditions and procedures for the notification of loans/credits.

(6<sup>1</sup>) Provisions of paragraph (6) shall not apply if the amount of the loan/credit does not exceed EUR 10000 (or its equivalent).

(7) Capital foreign exchange operations that imply the outflow of capital from the Republic of Moldova shall be performed without the authorisation of the National Bank of Moldova, unless otherwise provided for by this Law. These operations shall be performed in compliance with the legislation of the Republic of Moldova that regulates the field relevant to respective capital foreign exchange operations.

(8) The notification regime shall not be applied to capital foreign exchange operations, if such operations are governed by the Law on public sector debt, state guarantees and state on-lending no.419-XVI of 22 December 2006.

The authorisation regime shall not be applied to capital foreign exchange operations in which the Ministry of Finance or the National Bank of Moldova takes part, to opening of accounts abroad by public institutions with non-resident banks, as well as to capital foreign exchange operations performed from the national public budget funds. The authorization regime does not apply to foreign exchange operations related to the guarantees stipulated in Article 4 paragraph 12) of the Law on financial collateral arrangements No.184 of 22 July 2016 and governed by mentioned law.

(9) The performance of a capital foreign exchange operation subject to authorisation/notification that implies the performance of another capital foreign exchange operation, which, depending on the case, is also subject to authorisation/notification, shall requires the mandatory authorisation /notification for both operations.

(10) For the purposes of Section 3 of this Chapter, legal undertaking shall mean any enterprise or organisation (with or without legal entity status), the branches thereof, established under the legislation of the Republic of Moldova or the legislation of another state, as well as any individual practising a certain type of activity under the legislation of the Republic of Moldova or the legislation of another state.

[Article 6 amended and completed by Law No 363 of 29.12.2022, in force as of 20.07.2023]

Article 7. Operations related to direct investments

(1) Operations related to direct investments shall mean the operations concerning the performance of investments for the purpose of establishing or maintaining lasting economic links between the person investing the capital (investor) and the legal undertaking in which this capital is invested (hereinafter referred to as direct investments), as well as operations related to the liquidation /sale of direct investments.

(2) For the purposes of this Article, lasting economic links shall mean the relationships established due to the holding in a legal undertaking of a participation constituting 10% or more of authorized capital (or their equivalent) or of the number of participations with voting right of the legal undertaking; or of a participation allowing the investor to exert a significant influence on the management or the activity of the legal undertaking in which the capital is invested.

(3) Direct investments shall be made in the following ways:

a) establishment of a legal undertaking, totally belonging to the investor that provides authorized capital (or its equivalent); the increase by the investor of the authorized capital (or its equivalent) of the legal undertaking, totally belonging to the investor; integral purchase of an existent legal undertaking;

b) participation in a new or existent legal undertaking for the purpose of establishing or maintaining lasting economic links;

c) granting and receiving long-term loans/credits (for a period over 5 years) for the purpose of establishing or maintaining lasting economic links;

d) construction of buildings or other real estate, purchase of land, buildings or other real estate necessary for carrying out the activity of legal undertaking that is the object of direct investment;

e) reinvestment of income from direct investments for the purpose of maintaining lasting economic links.

(4) Operations related to direct investments shall be classified into those performed by:

a) non-residents in the Republic of Moldova;
