The meeting of the National Committee on Financial Stability on December 8, 2021

The National Committee on Financial Stability met on December 8, 2021, during the ordinary meeting, to examine the topics related to the organization of the Committee's work and the current situation of the component parts of the financial system.

The members of the Committee had examined the current situation of the banking sector, insurance sector and the non-bank lending sector, as well as the actions to mitigate the risks in the supervised sectors, undertaken by the National Bank of Moldova and the National Commission for Financial Market.

Likewise, the members of the Committee had discussed the progress related to the implementation of certain macroprudential instruments aimed to corelate the lending activity with the financial capacity of the debtors on all segments of the financial system.
