I. Authority

1. This Regulation is adopted pursuant to the authority vested in the National Bank of Moldova, under the Articles 11 and 44 of the 'Law on the National Bank of Moldova' and Articles 28 and 40 of the 'Law on Financial Institutions'.

(Item 1 amended by the Decision of the NBM no.174 of August 18, 2011)

2. This Regulation establishes the rules related to investments made by banks in property, plant and equipment, holding of tangible assets transmitted in possession of the bank/acquired in exchange for repayment of loans or debt in order to reduce or avoid losses in any financial activity (hereinafter property, plant and equipment submitted to bank for loans reimbursement) and limits the equity investments in the capital of legal entities, excluding the banks.

(As amended on November 15, 2001, Decision no. 298)

(Item 2 amended by the Decision of the NBM no.174 of August 18, 2011)

(Item 2 amended by the Decision of the NBM no.132 of May 21, 2015)

3. For the purpose of this Regulation, investment into property, plant and equipment means any acquisition, allocation of funds, acquisition of fixed assets and land (including seizures on the basis of court rulings or in compliance with collateral agreements), as well as any other asset that may be or become part thereof.

(As amended on November 15, 2001, Decision no. 298)

(Item 3 amended by the Decision of the NBM no.174 of August 18, 2011)

II.LIMITATION OF INVESTMENTS

4. Investments of a bank into property, plant and equipment [and other fixed assets, as defined] shall not exceed 50% of a bank's Total Regulatory Capital.

5. The total value of the bank's investments into property, plant and equipment [and other fixed assets] and of equity participation in the capital of legal entities, excluding the banks shall not exceed 100% of a bank's Total Regulatory Capital.

(Item 5 amended by the Decision of the NBM no.132 of May 21, 2015)

6. The book-value of such investments, which represents the value of property, plant and equipment at the date of balance elaboration and is calculated as the difference between the entry value, revalued or revised, and its depreciation, is taken for the calculation of the above-mentioned ratio.

(Item 6 amended by the Decision of the NBM no.174 of August 18, 2011)

(Item 6 completed by the Decision of the NBM no.132 of May 21, 2015)

7. Provisions of items 4 and 5 do not extend over property, plant and equipment submitted for loans reimbursement

(As amended on November 15, 2001, Decision no. 298)

(Item 7 amended by the Decision of the NBM no.174 of August 18, 2011)

III.INTERNAL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

8. A bank engaged in investments into property, plant and equipment [and other fixed assets, as defined] shall adopt appropriate policies and internal procedures regarding adequate management, accounting, and control of such investments.

9. A committee shall be set up at each bank, authorized and charged to manage and control all activities related to investments into property, plant and equipment. The committee may be the same as the one for managing and controlling equity investments in the capital of legal entities.

The aforementioned Committee shall examine and summarize the data on property, plant and equipment investments that are necessary for taking the proper decisions by the competent organ of the bank (bank's council or the executive organ). This Committee shall periodically report (at least quarterly) to the bank's council and the executive organ regarding the related activities to investments in property, plant and equipment and the management and control of equity investments in the capital of legal entities.

(As amended on November 15, 2001, Decision no. 298)

(Item 9 amended by the Decision of the NBM no.132 of May 21, 2015)

IV.PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT SUBMITTED FOR LOANS REIMBURSEMENT

10. Property, plant and equipment submitted for loans reimbursement will be registered, coordinated and controlled separately from other investments in property, plant and equipment.

11. Property, plant and equipment submitted to bank for loans reimbursement are classified as assets held for sale and are recognized in the balance sheet only when there is a high probability of their sale in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standard 5.

For this purpose, until the date of recognition in the balance sheet of property, plant and equipment submitted to banks for loans reimbursement, the bank shall have concrete plans to sell the property, plant and equipment that specify actions and methods used to promote the sale of their potential buyers and deadlines being based on sales confirmation documents (contracts intentions, requests, offers, studies / statistics that show good market liquidity, collateral evidence that the value of the asset, which will be sold, is far below its market value, etc.). Otherwise this property is reflected by bank in the account memorandum for record and their subsequent sale.

Property, plant and equipment submitted to bank for loans reimbursement shall be reflected at the lowest value between total debt of the debtor when conducting accounting (debt balance, interest calculated and reflected on the balance sheet, fees, penalties and other claims for credit) and fair value (the market value) of those property, plant and equipment items less any possible costs generated by sales.

Bank shall recognize a loss (a gain) of impairments for any reduction (increase) following the book value of property, plant and equipment submitted to bank for loans reimbursement in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standard 5. Gain recognized by the Bank from any subsequent increase in fair value less costs of sale of property, plant and equipment submitted to bank for loans reimbursement shall not exceed accumulated impairment loss that has been previously recognized.

(Item 11 completed by the Decision of the NBM no.132 of May 21, 2015)

12. Bank has the right to classify property, plant and equipment submitted for loans reimbursement in the balance sheet as assets held for sale within 12 months from the date of their recognition in the accounts.

13. If property, plant and equipment submitted for loans reimbursement were not sold due to objective reasons (events or circumstances beyond the control of the bank) during the period mentioned in paragraph 12 the bank, at least two months before the expiry of this period may request the National Bank of Moldova with a request to extend the period of their classification in that category. Extension of the classification of such assets will be required by the Bank only in cases where there will be events or circumstances determined by the International Financial Reporting Standard 5 (p. 9).

To the referred application shall be attached the following information / documents (copies of documents will be authenticated by the bank):
